

REFLECTION OF INSPIRATION

Membership

Individual Level

Individuals who support the ROI mission, vision, and values and are invested in creating social change in the movement to end domestic violence.

Advocate Level

Individuals who have completed our advocacy training, interested in ongoing professional development from ROI. Web log-in available, voting member, ongoing advocacy training.

Organizational Level

Best suited for single departments within a Tribe or stand-alone organizations, agencies, and programs who seek to build the internal capacity of employees, interns, and volunteers in need of ROI training and support. Print materials for office and employees, web log-in available, advocacy training, voting member.

Tribal Level

Any Tribal programs in the service area, best suited for multiple programs within the Tribe in need of ROI services: consultation services, grant management services, training services, and financial reporting services. Print materials, web log-in, advocacy training, voting member.

REFLECTION OF INSPIRATION

Membership

Individual Level

Individuals who support the ROI mission, vision, and values and are invested in creating social change in the movement to end domestic violence.

Advocate Level

Individuals who have completed our advocacy training, interested in ongoing professional development from ROI. Web log-in available, voting member, ongoing advocacy training.

- Receive e-newsletter for news, event announcements, and updates.
- Receive up-to-date training information on topics such as:
 - Domestic and sexual violence advocacy
 - Legal advocacy for domestic violence
 - Law enforcement response to domestic and sexual violence
 - Policy development for sexual and domestic violence
- Invitation to yearly gatherings of the ROI members
- Receive current statistics, trends, and reports regarding domestic and sexual violence in Indian Country
- Receive current funding information for domestic and sexual violence programs.
- Opportunity to network with individuals committed to ending violence against women and children

REFLECTION OF INSPIRATION

Membership

- Receive e-newsletter for news, event announcements, and updates.
- Receive up-to-date training information on topics such as:
 - Domestic and sexual violence advocacy
 - Legal advocacy for domestic violence
 - Law enforcement response to domestic and sexual violence
- Policy development for domestic and sexual violence
- Invitation to yearly gatherings of ROI members
- Receive current statistics, trends, and reports regarding domestic and sexual violence in Indian country
- Receive current funding information for domestic and sexual violence programs.
- Opportunity to network with individuals committed to ending violence against women and children
- Print materials to display and present to employees and in HR settings
- Online advocacy trainings available to all employees and volunteers in the organization
- Member portal on the website offering more information and resources for advocacy in the workplace and community, 3 log-ins.

Organizational Level

Best suited for single departments within a Tribe or stand-alone organizations, agencies, and programs who seek to build the internal capacity of employees, interns, and volunteers in need of ROI training and support. Print materials for office and employees, web log-in available, advocacy training, voting member.

REFLECTION OF INSPIRATION

Membership

- Receive e-newsletter for news, event announcements, and updates.
- Receive up-to-date training information on topics such as:
 - Domestic and sexual violence advocacy
 - Legal advocacy for domestic violence
 - Law enforcement response to domestic and sexual violence
- Policy development for domestic and sexual violence
- Invitation to yearly gatherings of ROI members
- Receive current statistics, trends, and reports regarding domestic and sexual violence in Indian country
- Receive current funding information for domestic and sexual violence programs.
- Opportunity to network with individuals committed to ending violence against women and children
- Print materials to display and present to employees and in HR settings
- Online advocacy trainings available to all employees and volunteers in the organization
- Member portal on the website offering more information and resources for advocacy in the workplace and community, 5 log-ins.
- Exclusive access to ROI services including consultation services, grant management services, training services, and financial reporting services.

Tribal Level

Any Tribal programs in the service area, best suited for multiple programs within the Tribe in need of ROI services: consultation services, grant management services, training services, and financial reporting services. Print materials, web log-in, advocacy training, voting member.