

Materials and Resources on Adult Victim Sexual Assault

A particular focus of the National Judicial Education Program’s (NJEP) work is adult victim sexual assault. Since its inception in 1980, NJEP has worked with state, federal, and tribal courts to promote the fair adjudication of these cases. NJEP creates and presents an extensive array of materials for in-person, DVD, and web-based judicial and multidisciplinary education about adult victim sexual assault and the intersection of sexual assault and domestic violence.

NJEP’s curricula include research from law, medicine, and the social sciences. These curricula employ interactive teaching techniques and are meant to be adapted for local jurisdictions. All of these resources are intended for multidisciplinary audiences and are utilized by individuals ranging from judges to sheriffs to social workers.

All of these resources are available online at NJEP’s Sexual Assault Resources page at : www.legalmomentum.org/our-work/vaw/njep-resouces.html

Intimate Partner Sexual Abuse: Adjudicating This Hidden Dimension of Domestic Violence Cases

6 curricula | 15 to 180 minutes in length | For civil, family and criminal court judges

Sexual abuse is far more prevalent in cases involving other forms of intimate partner violence than is generally recognized. Recent research with battered women reveals that intimate partner sexual abuse is a hidden but frequent aspect of family violence with significant implications for the courts, particularly with respect to risk assessment.

Based on NJEP’s extensive web course/resource Intimate Partner Sexual Abuse: Adjudicating This Hidden Dimension of Domestic Violence Cases, these six curricula can be integrated into in-person judicial education programs on a variety of topics relating to domestic violence or sexual assault, utilized in webinars, or reviewed by individuals online.

The Challenges of Adult Victim Sexual Assault Cases: Materials for New Judges

Introductory presentation | Resources CD

The focus is on alerting new judges and judges rotating into a new assignment to the unique challenges of cases involving adult victims of sexual assault that arise in criminal, civil, and family courts. This curriculum provides extensive resources to assist judges in meeting these challenges. All items on the Resources CD are provided in full. A featured component of the Materials for New Judges curriculum is the publication Judges Tell: What I Wish I Had Known Before I Presided in an Adult Victim Sexual Assault Case, described below, which can also be downloaded independently.

Elder Victims of Sexual Abuse

90 minutes

Elder sexual abuse by intimate partners, relatives, caregivers, other nursing home residents and stranger assailants is a prevalent and distinct form of victimization in which the victims' age and health further complicate the challenges that every sexual abuse/assault case presents for the courts. This curriculum presents current research, strategies for handling these cases, and exercises.

Jury Selection and Decision Making in Adult Victim Sexual Assault Cases

2 & 3 hour versions (adaptable to each jurisdiction)

Research shows that jurors in adult victim sexual assault cases assess the evidence through the lens of commonly held misconceptions and myths about rape, rape victims and rapists. This curriculum presents the research carried out with actual and mock jurors, as well as public opinion poll data about sexual assault. After learning about the current research, judges discuss their role in selecting a fair jury, protecting jurors' privacy and minimizing jurors' stress and trauma in these difficult cases.

Women in Drug Treatment Courts: Sexual Assault as the Underlying Trauma

60 minutes

Many women in drug courts are self-medicating the psychological pain of childhood and adult sexual and physical violence. When drug treatment programs fail to address the underlying trauma, women fail the programs. This curriculum explores the research on substance abuse among female sexual assault victims and the role of drug courts and treatment programs in their recovery.

Interpreters in Adult Victim Sexual Assault Cases

75 minutes

For already traumatized rape victims, encountering an interpreter untrained on sexual assault and domestic violence issues and determined to protect the image of his or her community, even at the expense of the victim, is profoundly destructive and undermines the fair administration of justice. This curriculum includes resources to improve court interpreter services.

Online Course

Intimate Partner Sexual Abuse: Adjudicating This Hidden Dimension of Domestic Violence Cases

This course provides interdisciplinary research from law, medicine and the social sciences on this hidden but frequent aspect of domestic violence, and explains the significant implications for the courts, particularly with respect to all types of risk assessment, including custody and visitation. The web course contains 13 in-depth modules on issues ranging from risk assessment to cultural defenses, four civil and four criminal case studies, and several interactive elements. Since publication, this web course has been accessed by diverse users worldwide.

Funded by the State Justice Institute and the Department of Justice Office on Violence Against Women, the web course is free and open to all. This online course was designed to permit states and jurisdictions to add sections with their own law and practice.

A California judge wrote to us:

“This course is superb. Every judge, prosecutor, public defender, probation and parole officer, and police officer should take it. I highly recommend this course for all involved in the criminal justice system. Well done and thank you. I will be a better judge as a result.”

Publications

Judges Tell: What I Wish I Had Known Before I Presided in an Adult Victim Sexual Assault Case

Judges Tell is a compendium of 25 points and commentary on key issues related to adult victim sexual assault. NJEP developed this publication in conjunction with judges experienced in presiding in adult victim sexual assault cases.

The Program Management Specialist at the Washington State Coalition of Sexual Assault Coalitions wrote to us:

“I just read your Judges Tell document, and I just want to write you a fan letter! This is a terrific resource for all professionals in the sexual assault field. You do an amazing job of presenting extensive, complex material in an accessible manner. I hope every judge in America reads this, and I know we will use this document in our educational efforts.”
