For Women Are Sacred (WAS) 2023 we are excited to continue WAS Talks!

WAS Talks provides a unique forum for survivors, advocates, researchers, the legal community, social workers, law enforcement, community/ family members, child welfare workers, philosophers, community leaders, politicians, and tribal leaders to:

- voice a statement
- speak your concerns
- express your creativity through poetry or staged reading
- talk about the future or direction of our movement, the role of advocacy, VAWA reauthorization, historical trauma, domestic violence practices, child welfare issues, sexual violence, missing and murdered, sex trafficking
- EVERYTHING!!!

WAS Talks will be RECORDED during the Women Are Sacred (WAS) Conference and is a project inspired by the national TED Talks: Ideas Worth Spreading. WAS Talks is an active reminder that our stories hold power in shining light on the issues of violence in our communities. It's time to talk.
