SAFETY GUIDE
This guide lists options that give you an opportunity to bring your experience into focus and help you consider possible responses to the violence you are facing.

You have the right to support and assistance in escaping violence.
Examples of tactics:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>PHYSICAL-SEXUAL:</th>
<th>Kick, punch, slap, pinch, hair pulling, pushing, biting, attack sexual parts of body, rape, being treated as a sex object.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ISOLATION:</td>
<td>Controls what she does, who she sees and talks to. Limits her outside involvement. Uses jealousy to justify actions.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MINIMIZE, LIE, BLAME:</td>
<td>Makes light of the abuse and doesn't take her concerns seriously. Says the abuse didn't happen. Shifts responsibility for abusive behavior. Says she caused it.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>USING THE CHILDREN:</td>
<td>Makes her feel guilty about the children. Uses the children to relay messages. Uses visitation to harass her. Threatens to take away the children.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ECONOMIC ABUSE:</td>
<td>Prevents her from working. Makes her ask for money. Gives her an allowance. Doesn't let her know about or access family income. Takes money away from her.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

These are some of my options if my partner is choosing to:

BE PHYSICALLY and/or SEXUALLY VIOLENT:

1. Call the police.
2. Be aware of objects in the house that could be used as weapons; be aware of the possible consequences for using a weapon in self-defense.
3. If you know or feel your partner is going to become violent, don't wait. Leave as soon as possible. Do not warn him you are leaving.
4. Identify ways of escaping and places to go ahead of time.
5. Teach the children to run to neighbors, friends or relatives, and call the police.
6. Tell neighbors or friends to call the police if they suspect or hear violence occurring.
7. Leave extra money, keys, clothes, and documents with relatives/friends or at the shelter.
8. Have an advocate help get a protection order and keep it with you all the time.
9. Seek medical attention especially if hit in the head or strangulation was attempted. Consider being checked for STD's.

ISOLATE ME:

1. Go to the shelter, friends or relatives if it is safe there.
2. Call the shelter, a friend or relative for support and help.
3. Find rides to visit others for support.
4. Make a connection with health and other service providers who might visit you in the home - if it is safe. If you believe he could become violent as a result of this visit, consider how you might make office visits.

INTIMIDATE ME:

1. Leave and go to a place that is safe and supportive.
2. Call the police.
3. Get a protection order.
4. Do whatever is needed to be safe from more violence right then. Talk to an advocate, friend, or relative when you are safe.
5. Talk to a person who understands what you're experiencing and make plans.

BE EMOTIONALLY ABUSIVE:

1. Visit with an advocate, friend or relative who is supportive and will keep confidentiality.
2. Practice self-talk and tell yourself that his battering is not your fault. Attend a women's group for survivors of domestic violence.
3. Go where people will respect, nurture and support you.
4. Do whatever is needed to be safe from more violence right then. Talk to an advocate, friend, or relative when you are safe.
5. Talk to a person who understands what you're experiencing and make plans.

MINIMIZE, LIE AND BLAME ABOUT THE VIOLENCE AND ABUSE:

1. Call or visit people who believe that this tactic makes you feel crazy and unable to trust your own judgment and perceptions.
2. Attend women's group at the shelter or other places.
3. Leave and go to places that are physically and emotionally safe.

USE THE CHILDREN TO MAKE ME FEEL GUILTY, THREATEN OR CONTROL ME:

1. Call or visit with people you can trust.
2. Enroll the children with your Tribe.
3. Get a protection order that either excludes visitation or requires supervised visitation with a drop-off contact.
4. File custody with the assistance of your advocate or attorney.
5. Teach the children to run to neighbors, friends or relatives, and call the police.
6. Talk to the children about what's going on. Advocates can help.

USE ECONOMIC ABUSE AGAINST ME:

1. Save (or hide) as much money as possible. Get a separate checking and savings account.
2. Get assistance from state Child Support Enforcement program.
3. Get assistance from an advocate and/or attorney to make sure money issues are addressed in custody, divorce and other legal situations.
4. Speak to someone who understands the dynamics of battering in regards to money matters.
5. Recognize your right to share in decision making about family resources and make sure the basic needs of you and your children are met.
