WRAP AROUND PROGRAM MANAGER

How Wrap Around was Formed?

- Years of meetings between all of the Social Service Departments in the Tribe
- First started in December 2017 with 2 workers without a supervisor in Department
- Program Manager was hired May 2019
- Wrap Around team worked together to come up with Mission, Vision, and Core Values

Mission

Our mission is to empower individuals to become healthy and stable through culturally sensitive collaboration with family and community members.

Vision

Our vision is to honor individuals and families through love and respect by providing accessible resources in a safe and trusting environment that returns community members to the traditional ways of helping each other to develop and achieve their goals.

Core Values

We believe that our team should offer services that treat all individuals and each other in a non-judgmental, empathetic, and innovative manner that upholds confidentiality.

Tiny Homes Creation

- Tribal Community Wellness Division and Wrap Around Program partnered with LIHI to create program for tribe
- LIHI knew what they were doing
- Construction began and Don Coats and Ron Wrolson came in as project managers
- Wrap Around worked on referrals and partnering with LIHI
- Flames of Recovery came in to help as well
- Many other programs helped to make this a reality

Pay'g'asilali: The Place of Transformation

The Puyallup Tribe has partnered with Low Income Housing Institute for the tiny home village, which is called Pay'g'asilali, which in English means "Place of Transformation." It includes about 30 tiny houses and a community kitchen, hygiene facilities, case management, and 24/7 staffing – all with the goal of providing shelter and support for homeless Tribal Members. Each tiny house is 8 feet by 12 feet, is insulated, and has heat, electricity, and a locking door.

Who will operate and manage the village?

LHI will operate and oversee the 24/7 day-to-day

What will the village include?

The village will include up to 30 tiny houses along
